

Bucharest, 17TH March 2010

PRESS RELEASE

EUROPAfest 2010 – the good music takes over Bucharest over 20 bands from Europe and USA

On every EUROPAfest edition, a good state of mind covers the city – live music, famous artists and great performances. Between 7th and 13th of May, more than 200 musicians from all over the world will hold blues, jazz, pop and classical music concerts in the Romanian capital.

For 17 years, EUROPAfest has been celebrating the European spirit through music, being an important representative of our country on the international festivals scene. Today, the event is considered a country brand. Starting 2005, the festival is developed under the High Patronage of Their Royal Highnesses Princess Margarita and Prince Radu.

The Director of the festival, Mr. Luigi Gageos says that “despite the difficult times we cross, we can not afford to renounce to the performance and quality, the two piles of EUROPAfest. That is why, this year, the festival will offer again good music, a mix of jazz, blues, pop and classical music, which will satisfy the most diverse preferences.”

Under the slogan “The festival offers! The choice is yours!” EUROPAfest has an agenda that is hard to refuse:

- blues, jazz and pop concerts, famous names of the international music scene
- Bucharest International Jazz Competition - offers 100% jazz & more in great musical products presented by the best musicians of the new jazz generation
- Caffe Festival comes to join those who want to relax after a busy day, along with their friends, at concerts hold in unconventional venues
- Jeunesses International Music Competition is dedicated to the classical music lovers, gathering this year, the most talented pianists in the world
- Gala EUROPAfest promises a festive atmosphere and the celebration of the best musicians in the festival

Between 7th and 13th of May, the festival will offer remarkable evenings in the company of great musicians from Europe and USA. When you think of EUROPAfest, you think of good music and a dynamic atmosphere! You think of spring!

To be closer of its friends, EUROPAfest can be found on Facebook, Twitter, MySpace and YouTube. With a simple click, you can enter the atmosphere of EUROPAfest.

Music, photos and videos on:

- Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/EUROPAfest/314433550723>
- MySpace: <http://www.myspace.com/EUROPAfest>
- YouTube: <http://www.youtube.com/user/EUROPAfest>
- Twitter: <http://twitter.com/EUROPAfest>

Become a fan on Facebook!
Friends meet at EUROPAfest.